

Learn & Earn

FROM THE COUNTRY HEAD'S DESK

June has arrived and with it, a month that is anything but ordinary. Behind the scenes, the team at Richmond Institute has been working tirelessly to lay the ground work for something truly significant. We are in the process of arranging and aligning everything for a major new chapter in our journey, one that will open the doors of higher education to even more students. We cannot reveal everything just yet, but what we can say is this: the best is coming. While the planning has kept us busier than ever, it is the kind of busy that fills you with purpose. Stay close, stay excited, and watch this space

Bushra Bajwa

EDITOR'S NOTE

If last month was about momentum, this month is about energy and there is plenty of it at Richmond Institute right now.

From classrooms buzzing with learning to exciting partnerships and placements, something new seems to be happening every single day. And while the institute hums along beautifully, your editor has been deep in the trenches: creating content, editing content, then editing the edited content, and then editing that too. :)

But honestly? Every word is worth it. Because Richmond Institute's story deserves to be told well. And trust me, the story is just getting better.

Shanza Chaudhary

Monthly Highlights

Welcome Aboard, Mr. Sabeeh!

Richmond Institute is thrilled to welcome Mr. Sabeeh to the team as our new Business Development Manager. His arrival marks an exciting new chapter in Richmond Institute's growth journey. With his expertise and vision, we are confident that Mr. Sabeeh will play a key role in expanding our reach, strengthening industry partnerships, and opening new doors for students and professionals alike. Welcome to the Richmond family, Mr. Sabeeh. We are glad to have you on board.

What's Happening at Richmond?

Two Students Land Jobs on Their Feet:

Richmond Institute's placement drive is delivering real results. This month, two of our talented students stepped directly into paid roles in their respective fields, proving that the right skills combined with the right support can open doors faster than you think.

German Class is Back and Louder Than Ever

The return of our German Language instructor has sparked fresh enthusiasm in the language department. Students are already back at their desks, notebooks open, ready to take on one of the world's most respected languages. If you have been thinking about joining, now is absolutely the time. Willkommen zurück!!!!

Upcoming Events

Learn & Earn

Something Big Is on the Horizon

We have been dropping hints and now we are ready to say it clearly: Richmond Institute is preparing to launch HIGHER EDUCATION opportunities for its students. This is not just an expansion; it is a transformation. Stay tuned for a full announcement coming very soon.

Exciting Career Opportunities Await

With Ms. Qurat ul Ain leading our Professional Placement efforts, Richmond Institute's career placement programme is in full gear. Upcoming recruitment drives, industry connections, and internship placements are all in the pipeline. If you are a Richmond Institute student, your next career opportunity may be just around the corner.

What's Trending in Careers

Digital and AI Skills Are Still Redefining the Future

The market is not waiting. From digital marketing to software development, from SEO to artificial intelligence, the skills that get you hired today are evolving faster than ever. Richmond Institute's short courses keep you ahead of the curve.

The question remains the same as last month:
are you preparing or just watching?

Heat is in Full Swing:

Faisalabad summers do not joke around, and neither do we. As temperatures rise, Richmond Institute remains the coolest place to be. Come for the learning, stay for the air conditioning, and do not forget to hydrate. We see you, we appreciate you, and we remind you: water bottle in hand, knowledge in mind. See you on campus.

This is not just another month. It is a turning point.
Stay alert. Stay involved. Stay ready.