

Richmond Institute

Student Course Freeze Policy

This document outlines the official Student Course Freeze Policy of Richmond Institute.

Guidelines:

- Students may temporarily freeze their course for a specified period due to personal or medical reasons.
- A formal freeze application must be submitted prior to the suspension period.
- Approval is subject to review by the admissions and academic administration team.